THE CHINA MAIL. HONGKONG, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17, 1868. CHINESE INSOLENCE. A STATEMENT put forth by the North China Daily News that, despite previous opposition, permission is shortly to be granted to foreigners to work the coal mines of the North records, if true, a most important fact and one to which we hasten to draw public attention. Still more astonishing is a rumour from the same source that the Chinese Government have submitted the question of its relations to foreigners to some of the leading men in the long roll of the Chinese officialdom. Our contemporary presses to be acquainted with the text of the answer given by Tsoo Kwo Fan to the despatch calling upon him for an explicit statement of his opinions, which is sufficiently interesting, exclusive of the peculiar views held by the writer. Strange as it may seem, he distinctly advocates upon political ground the granting of a permission to "preach Christianity" and to work the coal mines of the Northern provinces. Upon all other points—the right to navigate inland waters, to construct Railways and Telegraphs, &c.—Tsoo Kwo Fan remains obstinately opposed to progress. Nay, so far does he go that he even expresses his readiness to fight the foreigner on behalf of his conservatism. There is something very significant in this last assertion. So little impression have past wars made upon the mind of the most able of the native generals that he actually, eight years after the sack of Yuen-Ming Yuen, proposes to repel by force of arms any assertion on our part which bears the aspect of superiority!

It is time that this ridiculous farce were put an end to. Nothing could be more effectual to this end than to inform the Peking authorities that we are acquainted with the tenor of Tsoeng's recommendations, and that we do not intend that they shall in any sense what ever be allowed to carry weight. Such a statement would very probably alarm the Chinese not a little. But of what use is it keeping up the miserable delusion that we are treating with them on equal terms when in very fact every single act in which we have been concerned in China is the result of an appeal to the bayonet and rifle pure and simple! For the benefit of those who even yet fail to see the "actualities" of our position, we will reiterate for about the fortieth time the statement of how we arrived at our present position in the Empire. Imprimis we obtained the cession of Hongkong as British territory and the opening of five ports originally selected by sheer force of arms. We worked to the same end by the capture, at various periods, of Canton, Amoy, Ningpo, Shanghai, Taku, Tientsin, and the beleaguering of Peking. Our legation in that City was established under the bayonets of British and French troops. We burnt the chief palace of the Emperor, and we spent several millions in forcing upon, or running down the throats of the Chinese, a terms we dictated. And now forsooth, a dirty pig-tailed pagan, fat as a prize pig, proud as the Chinese parvenu ever is, with an insolence so great that we hesitate to believe in it, dares to council resistance to our first demands and offers with his gingerbread army, of which the component parts are only less dirty, thieving, insolent, and lying than their head, to "resist by force of arms any further concessions to the 'barbarian English'!"

It is said that the Chinese authorities at Peking are carefully informed of the remarks passed upon them by the English journals in China. We trust that this is the case. As we have said, the farce is well played out. Heaven grant that the threat of Tsoeng may be carried into operation! A war, in reality and not in name, might make of China, teeming with wealth, a glorious field for the civilizing powers of any European state.

TO-DAY'S POLICE. (Before Mr. Goodlake.)—A TAVERN ROW over "EUCHRE."—Sergeant O'Brien, of the Water Police; Jeremiah Foley, of the Army and Navy Tavern; and John Smith, formerly proprietor of a tavern, were summoned to appear for having assaulted Joseph Borges, proprietor of the Live-pork Arms grungshop.—Mr. Hazeland, who acted for the complainant, stated that it appeared that defendants and the complainant had been playing cards in the Army and Navy Tavern on Monday afternoon, and that a most cowardly assault was committed by O'Brien upon Borges, while Smith held O'Brien's hand. O'Brien, being a police constable, ought to do everything in his power to keep the peace, instead of encouraging the commission of an offence against the license regulations.—J. Borges, (who appeared with an extensive purple halo round both eyes and signs of damage about his nose) stated that at 3.30 p.m. on Monday he was playing at cards (euchre) for drinks with the defendant, O'Brien, when the latter got "stuck" the first two rounds; then the Sergeant got "stuck" for another dollar. Sergeant then said, "Joa, play off now," which O'Brien did, and O'Brien got "stuck" once more. Again another game, and again the Sergeant was "stuck," and Borges took a winner; when some words passed, O'Brien offering to play Borges for $2. Play being resumed, Borges lost the first and gained the second game, which "squared" the play; but here the complainant suspected cheating, and so and throw down the cards. While the war of words was going on, O'Brien handed off and struck Borges in the nose, when Foley interfered. His hands were "grubbed" by Smith; and over Foley's head he gave O'Brien a blow on the head, because he was coming at him again; he (Borges) never had chance of a fair blow. He got this last blow over the "hags" O'Brien then "lara" him go; and he said to Master Foley, he says, "You ought to keep a quiet house," says he; and with that Master Foley says, "You condemned offspring of a female dog," for words to that effect, says he, "if you say any more," he says, "I'll lick you now," says he. At this stage, Master Smith says, "Come into the back yard and wash your face," says he, as he was bleeding; and then Smith shut the door after the Sergeant came in. O'Brien then became noisy, and then called upon him (Borges) to fight, or he (O'Brien) would hit him. On Borges endeavouring to quiet the Sergeant, the latter again hauled upon him (Borges) expressed to "I laid me on my back." They saw with Lord Borges' hands, while the redoubtable Sergeant struck three well-planted "fisters" in the vicinity of Borges' eyes; and that it was agreed that Borges had had enough. Borges, laboring under the same impression, then left the house, and reported the affair to the Police. In reply to O'Brien, Borges said that he had not a large plain ring on at the time, only two rings (shown); he struck O'Brien once Foley here said that he denied the assault, that was the only question he would ask; he only "supported" the two.—William Allison, seaman, stated that, at the place and time before named, complainant and defendants were playing cards, when they somehow got to wrangling, and then that came to blows; they had all been drinking, but were not drunk. He saw O'Brien strike the complainant, and also saw complainant strike O'Brien over Foley's shoulder—a sort of "down cut." Saw nothing of the back-yard affair. He had known Borges for four or five years, but had noticed no mark on his face, or any signs of his head having been "pricked" for the last month.—Here Borges said that he had kept a house in Hongkong for the last eighteen years, and had never been in the Court about a row before.—Mr. Goodlake said he was happy to hear it.—Robert Burns, watchman at a gambling house, said he saw blows struck by both parties, and Foley separated them; while Foley was between them, blows were struck. O'Brien struck the first blow, and he was in uniform; they went out to wash themselves.—His Worship was sorry that card-playing should be going on in a public-house in the middle of the day, and that a constable should be one of the players. There was no doubt as to the assault being committed by O'Brien; but the other two were apparently not guilty of anything beyond being in the "row." He must fine O'Brien $10, or 7 days; and had it not been for the provocation given by the expressed suspicion of cheating, he would have punished the Sergeant much more severely.—Foley and Smith were discharged.

Malcolm Baker, keeper of a seaman's boarding-house in Lascar Row, was charged with assault. Sergeant Hawes (P.C.) stated that, on Sunday at 7.30 p.m., he went to prisoner's house to search for the man Kyroolla (for whom the Coroner and the Police have issued warrants in the alleged murder case at Aberdeen), when prisoner refused admission, and with others, hustled the constable. P. C. Sergeant Hawes also stated that he was in company with previous witness when the hustling took place. He believed that Kyroolla escaped through the scuffle.—His Worship observed that it was a very serious case; prisoner knew that the constable had a perfect right to search a licensed boarding-house. He would fine the prisoner $50, or in default send him to prison for two months.

The case against the Comproadors and Coadjutors of the Union Dock Company was to-day further remanded until Tuesday next, at 1 o'clock, as the examination of the books had not been completed. It is said that the Police have "found a clue."

(Before Mr. May.)—PRISON.—The seven men of the Pilot boat No. 156 were brought on remand to-day. One of the crew corroborated (yesterday) the statement made by the first witness, and added that the boat 156 fired into his junk, before giving place to the other from which the men boarded. He particularly remarked the number 156 upon the boat which first attacked them, and afterwards identified some of the prisoners, among others, on board the police Hulk. Another witness also deposed to the attack, and to having identified some of the prisoners. A boy belonging to boat 156, who had formerly given on account of the attack, was next placed in the box, but denied or remained silent to every inquiry made by the Court.—Mr. Francis (for Mr. Gaskell) appeared this morning on prisoners' behalf. Inspector Daly deposed to the capture of the junk or boat No. 156, to the statement previously made by the last witness (the boy) against the prisoners, and also to the identification by two or three of the Chinchow crew of the first, second, third and fourth prisoners. Books were produced in proof of the fact that prisoners' boat was at sea on 23d May, the day in question. Prisoners try to prove an alibi.

The first three prisoners, however, were committed for trial at the Supreme Court, and the remaining five were discharged.

Post-Office Notifications.

It is hereby notified for general information that henceforward Book Packets and Packets of Samples or Patterns may be transmitted by the Post in the Mails by the British, French, German, and Nipponese, at the following rates, viz:—

Under 4 ounces.	6 cents.
Above 4 ounces and not exceeding 8 ounces.	12 "
Above 8 ounces and not exceeding 12 ounces.	18 "
For every additional 4 ozs.	6 "

The Postage must in all cases be paid in advance.

Special attention is directed to the following Rules and Regulations which will be strictly enforced:—

AS REGARDS BOOKS. A Book Packet may contain any number of separate Books, Almanacs, Maps, or Prints, and any quantity of paper, vellum, or parchment (to the exclusion of letters, whether sealed or open); and the Books, Maps, Paper, &c., may be either printed, written or plain, or any mixture of the three.

All legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of the same or of a portion thereof, will be allowed, whether such binding be loose or attached; a also rollers in the case of prints, markers (whether of paper or otherwise), in the case of Books, and in short whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter or usually appertains thereto.

Every Book packet must be either without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides.

It must not contain any letter, open or sealed, nor any sealed enclosure whatever. No packet must exceed two feet in length, breadth or depth; exceeding these dimensions it cannot be forwarded through the Post.

AS REGARDS PATTERNS. They must not be of intrinsic value. This rule excludes all articles of a saleable nature, and indeed, whatever may have a value of its own, apart from its mere use as a pattern; and the quantity of any material sent ostensibly as a pattern must not be so great that it can fairly be considered as having on this ground an intrinsic value.

There must be no writing or marks other than the address of the person for whom the packet is intended, a trade mark and numbers, and prices of the articles; otherwise the Packet will be detained or forwarded charged as an unpaid letter.

The Patterns must be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination. Samples however, of seeds, drugs, and so forth, which cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen or other material, tied at the neck; bags so closed that they cannot readily be opened, even although they be transparent, must not be used for this purpose. Non-compliance with this rule will also subject the packet to be detained, or forwarded as an unpaid letter.

The Packets or the contents thereof must not contain any inclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection.

In all other respects the general regulations of the Book Post will apply to the Pattern Post. Under these regulations, in order to prevent any interruption to the regular transmission of letters, a Packet of Patterns may, when it is necessary to be kept back for the following Mail by which, in the ordinary course, it would be forwarded.

The decision of the Postmaster General as to the eligibility of any Packet, pattern, or sample contained therein, to be forwarded under these regulations, will be final and conclusive.

The rule which forbids the transmission through the Post of any article likely to injure the contents of the Mail Bags or Boxes, or the person of any Officer of the Post Office is, of course, applicable to the Pattern Post; and a packet containing anything of the kind will be stopped, and not sent to its destination. Articles such as the following have been occasionally posted as Patterns and have been detained as unfit for the Post, viz: Metal boxes, porcelain, cuttings of plants, spurs, knives, scissors, needles, pins, pieces of machinery, sharp pointed instruments, samples of metals, samples of ore; samples of glass bottles, pieces of glass, acids of various kinds, curry combs, copper and steel engraving, plates and collection of all kinds.

RETURN OF PROFESSOR WHEELER. O the "Foreign Residents of Hongkong"—in returning his sincere thanks for past favours, Professor Wheeler begs to call the attention of the community at large to his having returned to this port, and to the fact that he intends carrying on his business as an "Hair Dresser," Wig-Maker and Perfumer, &c., &c.

Ladies and Gentlemen requiring their hair attended to will find it "artistically and scientifically" arranged and cut "à la mode."

W. W. hopes by strict attention to business (and skill displayed by him previously when in Hongkong) to merit a large share of patronage and support from his old friends and residents here.

Terms strictly moderate.

EUREKA! EUREKA! EUREKA!!!
Professor Wheeler, during his late travels ("in the new world") and scientific researches, has discovered and invented a celebrated preparation for preventing hair turning grey, and restoring grey hair to its natural color; it also is a wonderful specific for removing dandruff, that great enemy to the human hair. One trial alone will be sufficient to satisfy the most sceptical of its worth, and meet with a large and universal sale in every port in "China and India."

P. W.—s "Wheeler's Hair Restorative" made to order for exportation; also the trade treated with on the most liberal terms; all orders will meet with prompt and quick despatch.

A. B.—Please note the address; my Salon will be open to the public on SATURDAY next, June 13th.—Wellington Street, two doors to the West of Mons. A. Boyer.

KÖNIGLICH PREUSSISCHES CONSULAT.
HONGKONG, den 10ten April, 1868.
IE nachstehende Bekanntmachung des Königlich Preussischen General Consuls, auf dem Schanghai, bringt hiernach zur Kunde der Unterthanen der Norddeutschen Bundesstaaten.

J. MENKE,
Stellvertretender Königlich Preussischer Consul.

BEKANNTMACHUNG.
NACH dem Norddeutschen Bundesgesetz vom 25ten October 1867 haben alle Kaufahrtschiffe der Bundesstaaten, also namentlich die Preussische, Mecklenburgische, Oldenburgische und die Städte Bremen, Hamburg und Lübeck vom 1ten April 1868 ab die Nationalflagge ausschliesslich, die Bundesflagge zu führen.

Dieselbe bildet nach der Königlich im Namen des Bundes erlassenen Verordnung vom 25ten October 1867 ein längliches Rechteck, bestehend aus drei gleich breiten horizontalen Streifen, von welchen der obere schwarz, der mittlere weiss und der untere roth ist. Das Verhältniss der Höhe der Flagge zur Länge ist wie zwei zu drei. Die Bundesflagge wird von den Schiffen am Heck oder am hinteren Mast, und zwar in der Regel an der Gaffel dieses Mastes, in Ermangelung einer solchen aber am Top oder am Mast geführt. Ein besonderes Abzeichen in der Bundesflagge oder einem Wimpel zu führen, ähnlich demjenigen der Kriegsmarine des Norddeutschen Bundes, ist den Kaufahrtschiffen nicht gestattet.

Die Loosentflagge der Norddeutschen ist die neue Bundesflagge im kleinen Format, rings umgeben von einem weissen Streifen, dessen Breite gleich der inneren Streifen ist.

Die Kaufahrtschiffe haben die Bundesflagge stets zu führen, sobald sie ein Schiff oder Fahrzeug der Bundeskriegsmarine, eine Festung oder ein Küstenfort passieren, welche ihre Nationalflagge gesetzlich haben. Dasselbe gilt bei der Begegnung mit Kriegsschiffen befreundeter Mächte auf See.

Nach § 18 des Flaggengesetzes genügen die bündel von den Kaufahrtschiffen geführten Bundesflaggen auch zur Führung der Bundesflagge. Alle nur mit interimsischen Consul-Certificaten versehenen norddeutschen Schiffe haben indessen sofort ihre Eintragung in der Heimath zu bewirken.
